Determined by the voices of more than 16,000 healthcare providers via interviews, and compiled using data from websites and industry reports, the Best in KLAS designation is awarded to the solution that provides the utmost operational and clinical impact on healthcare providers.

NextGen Healthcare improved on its 2019 score of 81.9 by earning a score of 83.3 in 2020. The top-ranking underscores the confidence and trust that clients place in NextGen Practice Management.

NextGen Enterprise PM supports all aspects of running a healthcare business:

- Registration and scheduling
- Eligibility and pre-service financial clearance
- Rules-based charge creation
- Clean claims and A/R management
- Contract audit and recovery
- Revenue optimization

“When 16,000 healthcare professionals vote your solution Best in KLAS two years running, it’s a powerful testament to the strength and expertise of the team,” said Rusty Frantz, NextGen Healthcare President and CEO. “This recognition goes to our dedicated clients, along with the talented solutions, engineering and services teams who brought these solutions to market—and never stop working to improve them. While our goal is to solve real-world problems for our clients, not to win awards, it’s humbling and gratifying when the market validates our efforts.”

According to clinicians at The Orthopedic Specialty Hospital (TOSH) in Murray, Utah, NextGen Healthcare PM has delivered what was promised.

“We adopted NextGen Healthcare’s PM solution nearly 10 years ago, and it has been very solid software,” said Gene Oakes, TOSH administrator. “The PM software is user-friendly, I really like the report writing features, and the reports are comprehensive and accurate,” Oakes continued. “I can quickly get to the information needed to answer questions with physicians, while also managing our billing process.”

“Providers and payers demand better performance, usability, and interoperability from their vendor partners every year. Best in KLAS winners set the standard of excellence in their market segment. Earning a Best in KLAS award should both excite and humble the recipients. It serves as a signal to providers that they should expect only the best from the winning vendors,” said Adam Gale, KLAS President.
