Safe Harbor Provisions for Forward-Looking Statements

This presentation and the accompanying oral statements may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Statements regarding future events, developments, the Company's future performance, as well as management's expectations, beliefs, intentions, plans, estimates or projections relating to the future (including, without limitation, statements concerning revenue and net income), are forward-looking statements within the meaning of these laws and involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Management believes that these forward looking statements are reasonable and are based on reasonable assumptions and forecasts, however, undue reliance should not be placed on such statements that speak only as of the date hereof. Moreover, these forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, some of which are outlined below. As a result, actual results may vary materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements. Among the important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements are: the volume and timing of systems sales and installations; length of sales cycles and the installation process; the possibility that products will not achieve or sustain market acceptance; seasonal patterns of sales and customer buying behavior; impact of incentive payments under The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act on sales and the ability of the Company to meet continued certification requirements; the development by competitors of new or superior technologies; the timing, cost and success or failure of new product and service introductions, development and product upgrade releases; undetected errors or bugs in software; product liability; changing economic, political or regulatory influences in the health-care industry; the effectiveness of M&A strategies and integration efforts; changes in product-pricing policies; availability of third-party products and components; competitive pressures including product offerings, pricing and promotional activities; the Company's ability or inability to attract and retain qualified personnel; disruptions caused by corporate restructuring plans and business strategy shifts; possible regulation of the Company's software by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration; uncertainties concerning threatened, pending and new litigation against the Company including related professional services fees; uncertainties concerning the amount and timing of professional fees incurred by the Company generally; changes of accounting estimates and assumptions used to prepare the prior periods' financial statements; general economic conditions; and the risk factors detailed from time to time in the Company's periodic reports and registration statements filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Revenue Growth Drivers (Illustrative)

Long-Term Financial Plan

High Single-Digit Revenue Growth w/ Operating Leverage

Cross-selling meaningfully through the base

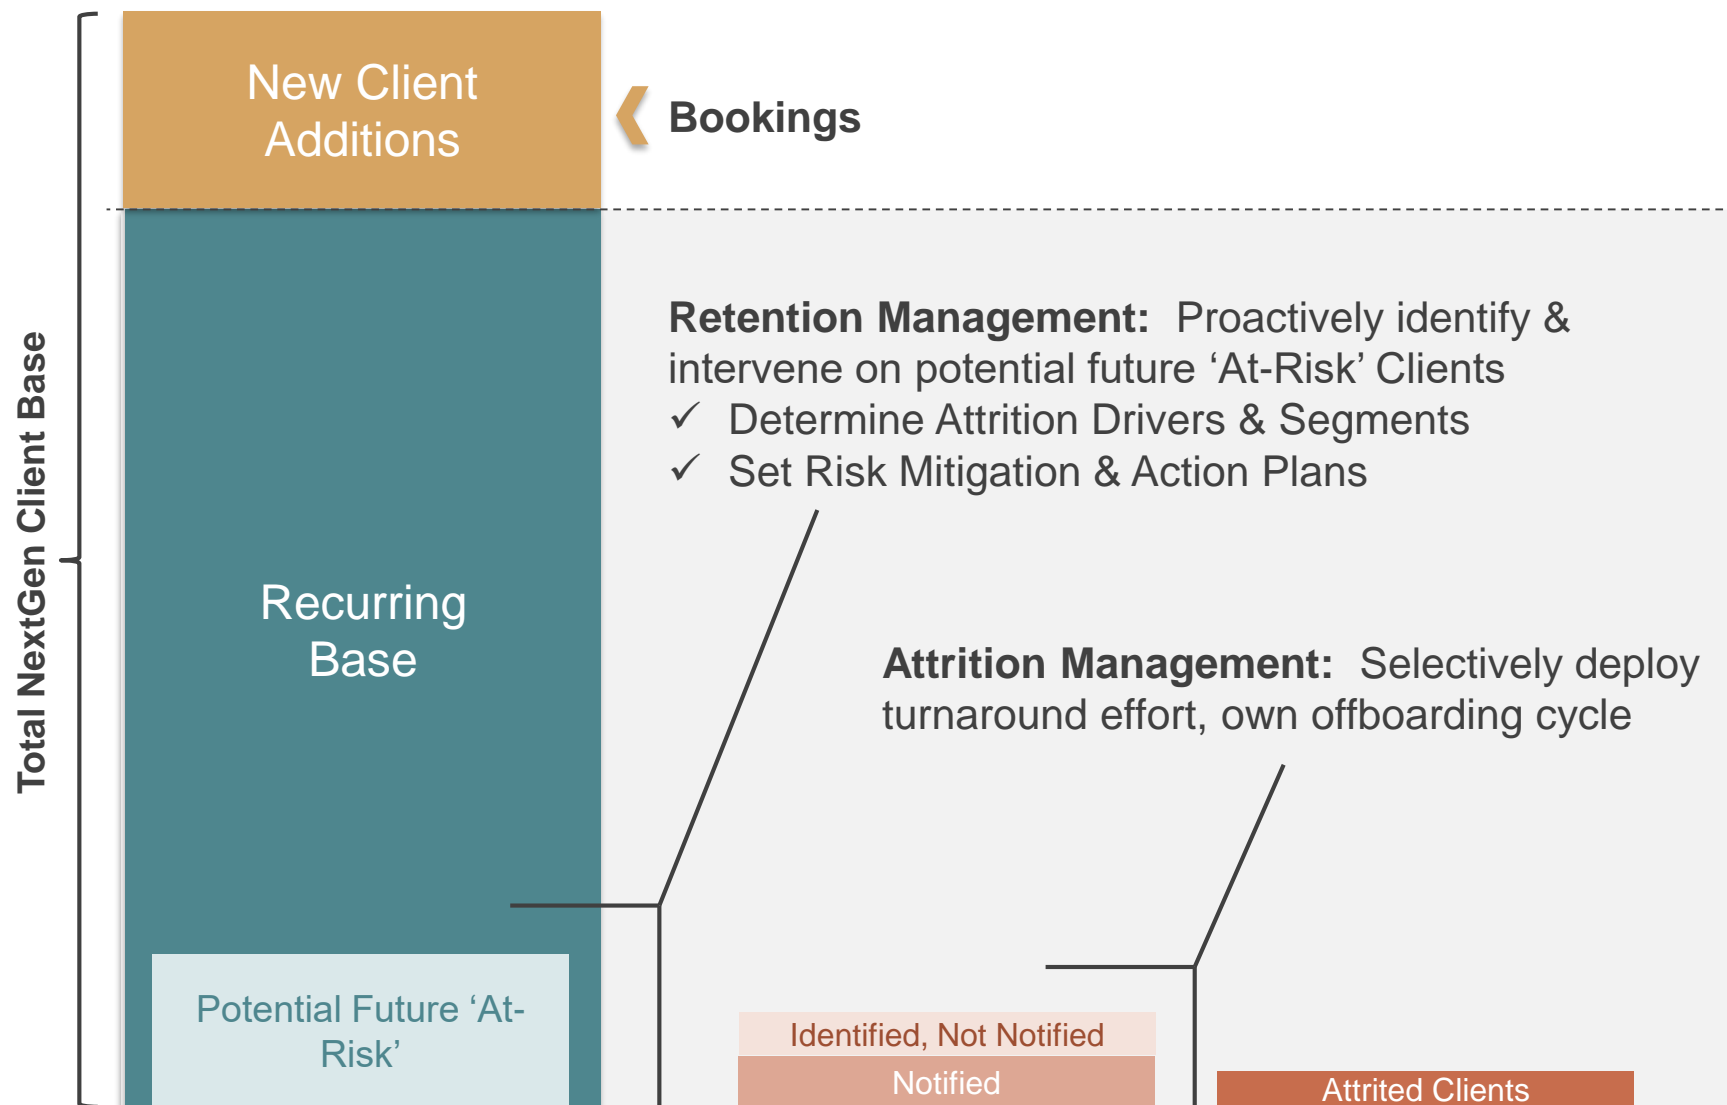

Commentary¹

- Closing opportunities in the white space can provide significant incremental revenue
- RCM $25.6M of TTM bookings; ~15% penetration could produce $80M of incremental revenue
- Analytics $5.3M of bookings TTM; ~25% penetration could produce $50M of incremental revenue
- Mobile $6.8M bookings TTM; ~20% penetration could produce $30M of incremental revenue
- Sales pipeline strengthening across all components of our solution

¹TTM Bookings through Nov 2018

Focused on Retention Management

Financial Highlights

Improving Revenue Visibility

- Approximately 90,000 providers currently use our solutions
- Recurring revenue is ~89% of total revenue
- Revenue streams comprised of diversified but related solutions which creates significant cross selling opportunities

Expansion Opportunities

- Increased R&D and M&A spend to enhance platform, stabilize base, and provide cross sell opportunity
- Enhanced sales and marketing capabilities to drive bookings growth from selling whole solution and support new offerings
- Significant dry powder and organizational capabilities to execute on inorganic activities

Leverageable Infrastructure

- Common back office, commercial teams and R&D group require minimal additional investment to support growth
- Maturing organization with scalable skills – focus on a performance culture and sole face-to-the-customer
- Building processes that support ease of doing business and support newly acquired solutions

Experienced, Successful Leadership team with demonstrated history of disciplined management

Financial Highlights

In $Millions	As Reported FY18*			FY19
	Q2	Q3	Q4	Q1	Q2
Subscription services	$26.8	$26.6	$27.4	$28.3	$29.3
Support and maintenance	41.7	40.4	40.6	41.2	39.6
Managed services	28.0	28.9	27.3	26.3	23.5

Total revenues	$132.6	$131.7	$135.8	$133.2	$130.3

Commentary

- Long term growth driver based on new offerings and market opportunities
- Increased attrition in near term; new sales and CPI insufficient to overcome LT trends
- Near-term Challenge; Mid to long term opportunity
- Steady growth opportunity via add-on sales of existing offerings
- Largely saturated market for perpetual, on-premise licenses
- Return to growth due to Entrada and upgrade cycle
